General: HARRY & ROSE TEIPEN BURNS

Harry Keith Burns was born February 5, 1893 in Martinsville, Indiana and died October 13, 1931 in Indianapolis, Indiana. He was buried in St. Joseph Cemetery at South Meridian and Pleasant Run Blvd. His parents were Henry Harrison Burns (1867-1926 buried Floral Park Cemetery, Indianapolis) and Emma Bell Ward (1870-1899 buried in Nutter Cemetery, Martinsville, Indiana). They had 5 children, Kenneth, Murriel, Millard, Hary Keith and Aorie Smith. Henry Harrison later married his second wife, the older sister of his first wife Emma Bell. Her name was Mary Ward (1855-1928 buried Floral Park Cemetery, Indianapolis).

Rose Catherine Teipen was born September 22, 1898 at 1111 So. West Street in Indianapolis. She died November 3, 1979 and was buried in Washington Park East Cemetery. Her parents were Hendricus Antonius Teipen born in Denekamp, Holland (1859-1929) and Henrika Catharina Euphemia Rakers born in Esche, Germany (1866-1939). She was called Rika in Germany and Henrietta here in the USA. Both were buried in St. Joseph Cemetery. Rose was one of nine children. The children went to Sacred Heart Church and School. In 1906 the family moved from West Street to Bakemeyer Street. Rose wrote letters to Germany for her mother, Henrietta, because Henrietta couldn't write English.

Rose and Harry married February 7, 1917 at Sacred Heart Church. Rose is first listed in the 1917 city directory as a clerk, living at 151 Bakemeyer. We don't know when or where they met. We think Harry drove a van or truck for a dry cleaner. Later he became an automobile mechanic and was known as one of the best in the city. He worked in the Fountain Square area on the south side of town and also worked a short time in Greenwood, Indiana at a garage on Main Street. He taught Uncle Harry Martlage, Uncle Norris Cunningham and Bill Spangler how to work on cars. At night, Harry also worked on cars in the

CHILD NOTES: Mary BURNS

Birth: No record of birth for Mary found at Sacred Heart Church. But Lauck Funeral Home records show she was born Dec. 12, 1917, stillborn daughter of Rosa Teipen & Harry Burns of 151 Bakemeyer Street.
Death: No record of death found for Mary at Sacred Heart Church. But Lauck Funeral Home records show Mary Burns, stillborn daughter of Rosa Teipen and Harry Burns died Dec. 12, 1917, and was buried in the German Catholic Cemetery, later called St. Joseph Cemetery.
Burial: When no record of my sisters Mary or Helen Marie was found at Sacred Heart Church or Catholic Cemetery Office, I wrote to Leo Lauck of the Lauck Funeral Home. His reply follows:
"I received your letter the other day and checked our records concerning the information you requested. Unfortunately Grandpa Lauck didn't keep as much information as I do now. Our records showed that infant Mary Burns died on December 12, 1917, and was buried on the same day in the German Catholic Cemetery later called St. Joseph Cemetery. Her parents were Rosa Teipen and Harry Burns and they lived at 151 Bakemeyer. The record does NOT show a lot number; but I would suspect that her burial is in the INFANT SECTION (Cemetery of the Angels) of St. Joseph which is located in the corner of the cemetery near South Meridian Street and Pleasant Run Blvd. Helen Marie Burns was born on October 28, 1918 and died on March 24, 1919. Her records show the same parents and same address as above. On this record the burial was stated as St. Joseph Cemetery. My guess is that she also is buried in the "Cemetery of the Angels" as was her sister. The policy of the Cemetery for years had been to open the next grave in line in this section when a need occurred. However, if a family already had an interment in that section, many times they would make an effort to have a new interment as close to the other as possible. There is a STRONG possibility that they may be buried very close to one another. The Cemetery was supposed to keep a record as to these burials. We didn't start keeping grave locations in our records until my Father took over the books in the late 40's and early 50's. Great Grandpa Lauck and Grandpa Lauck were not much on record keeping. In those days, the Cemetery many times allowed infants to be buried at the foot of an adult grave of a Family member. If the parents had grave space; the infants might be buried on that lot. I am sorry I could not be a better help in this matter, but this is all our records show. If you should have a question with this response or if I can be of any other assistance, let me know!" Signed Leo B. Lauck

When Anthony & Henrietta moved from West Street, we were told they moved a house down to Bakemeyer from Morris and West Streets. Then they built homes on the property they bought on Bakemeyer. We aren't sure how many homes they built. We were told some of the property on Bakemeyer was sold to buy farms in Jackson County in 1918. Rose was a witness to Henrietta's "X" when she had to sign papers to buy the farms because Henrietta couldn't write in English.

HARRY AND ROSE TEIPEN BURNS

Harry Keith Burns was born Feb. 5, 1893 in Martinsville In. and died Oct. 13, 1931 in Indianaplis. He was buried in St. Joseph Cemetery at So. Meridian and Pleasant Run Blvd.

His parents were Henry Harrison Burns and Emma Bell Ward. Henry was born in 1867 in Martinsville, he died in 1926 in Indianapolis and buried in Floral Park Cemetery. Emma Bell was born in Martinsville, died in 1899 and buried in Nutter Cemetery, Martinsville, In. On one census Henry was listed as a painter. They had 5 children, Kenneth, Murriel, Millard, Harry Keith and Aorie Smith. When Emma Bell died, Henry married her older sister Mary Ward. Mary was born in 1855 in Martinsville, died in Indianapolis in 1928 and buried in Floral Park Cemetery.

The Burns family left Martinsville and in 1911 lived at 135 Hoefgen St. which is near Manual High School. He taught the trade to two of his brothers-in-law. He worked in the Fountain Square area and later in a shop on Main Street in Greenwood, In. At night he worked on automobiles in the garage at his home at 1633 Finley Ave.

Rose Catherine Teipen was born Sept. 22, 1898, at 1111 So. West St. She died Nov. 3, 1979 and was buried in Washington Park East Cemetery. Her parents were Hendrikus Antonius Teipen and Henrika Euphemia Catharina Rakers. Anthony as he was called in America, was born June 14, 1859 in Denekamp, Holland, died July 4, 1929 in Indianapolis and buried in St. Joseph Cemetery. Henrietta as she was called in America, was born in Esche, Germany Aug. 29, 1866, died Feb. 19, 1939 in Indianapolis and also buried in St. Joseph Cemetery.

Rose and Harry were married Feb. 7, 1917 at Sacred Heart Church. At that time Harry was living at 638 Division St. with his parents. Rose was listed as a clerk on the City Directory and living at 151 Bakemeyer with her parents. They had a grocery store in the front of their house, so Rose probably worked there.

Rose and Harry had 7 children, Mary (stillborn Dec. 12, 1917), Helen Marie (1918-1919), Harriet Rosemary (1919-   ), Deloris (1921-   ), Kenneth Harry (1923-1990), Margaret Mary (1925-   ), and Wilma Elizabeth (1928-   ). Mary, Helen Marie, Harriet Rosemary, Kenneth and Margaret were all born on Bakemeyer St. Deloris was born on the grandparents farm in Jackson County. The reason is unclear, but maybe Henrietta was a midwife and helped in the birth. Wilma was born on Finley. We found records on Mary and Helen Marie at Lauck Funeral Home and know they were buried in St.Joseph Cemetery. However, the Cemetery office has no records on them. Mr. Lauck said years ago they didn't keep good records at the Funeral Home, or the Cemetery. Kenneth was buried in Boggstown, near his home.

Around 1918 Anthony and Henrietta bought 2 farms in Jackson County and we remember going down there. There were coal oil lamps, no electricity, a heating stove and outside toilet. Rosemary remembers walking down the lane to the mailbox at age 5 and getting a box of candy from Uncle Dick. He worked for Crucible Steel Co. at that time and the candy was in a small box with a sliding lid. It probably held some small steel bits at the shop where he worked.

We were still living on Bakemeyer St. in 1925 and Rosemary started 1st grade at William Evans School on So. Pennsylvania Street.

We moved to 1633 Finley in 1926 and went to St. Catherine School on Shelby St. It was quite a distance from our house and Mom worried about Rosemary walking there alone. So it was arranged for me to start first grade at age 5, so we could walk together. We both took piano lessons from a Nun at St. Catherines.

Life was good as we remember it back then. We girls did the dishes and had to stand on a chair to put them away in the kitchen cabinets. We were seldom punished, but when the time came, Dad made us set on the stairs to the basement. It was dark and really scared us. He didn't believe in spanking. We remember getting toys and candy at Christmas time.

Mom and dad aren't on the city directory in 1928 so that must be when we lived in Greenwood. We lived in two different houses there. One was down a lane from Madison Ave. and the other was at Main and Brewer. Dad worked at Meyers & Welch Auto Shop on Main Street and it was a short distance from where we lived. They kept the Fire Engine there and Dad would take Kenneth down to see it. We don't know what happened to the house on Finley while we were in Greenwood. Maybe they rented it to someone.

In 1929 grandfather Anthony was sick and mom took care of him, even though he and grandma lived next door. Mom had a good friend Mrs. Coombs who lived a few doors down the street. She was very upset to see grandma swinging on the front porch while Mom took care of grandpa. Mom had plenty to do and could have used some help. She cleaned house and did laundry for Mrs. Coombs, besides taking care of the five of us.

As young kids on Finley Street, we had a good time. You could buy paper dolls with many outfits. We would cut them out, string a line from one piano leg to the other, and hang up the clothes. Our house wasn't far from Garfield Park. We would walk over there and play. In winter time we would take sleds to the Park and slide down the hills.

Kenneth seemed to get into trouble more than we girls. One time he came home crying and told Mom a boy on the next street called him "white trash." Mom asked "what did you do to the boy?" Kenneth said he called the boy a nigger. We don't remember that word being used at home so have no idea where Kenneth heard it. He was playing over on Hoefgen Street where Uncle Henry and Aunt Frances lived. Their next door neighbors, the Weathers family, were colored. So Kenneth must have had words with a boy from that family. We had 2 colored families living on Finley and went to school with the childrem. amd there was never a problem.

Another problem we remember with Kenneth was the day he came home with a mess on his head. Mom had we girls cleaned up, ready to go somewhere and here came Kenneth. He played with a Lester Gootee who lived a few doors from us. Lester took shellac and put it all over Kenneth's head. We don't know what Mom used to clean him up.

Years back, milk was delivered to your front door. We had metal boxes and kept them by the front or back door. The empty bottles were put in the box, the milkman came, and left what you ordered. One time Kenneth went to the Dawson's house next door and put "road apples" in their empty bottles. If you're not aware of what a road apple is, it's horse manure!

Mom and Dad and their friends got together on weekends and took turns going to one anothers house. Mom played the piano very well. At one time she played at a local theater on So. Meridian by Sacred Heart.

At the get togethers, they enjoyed playing cards, listening to the music, and visiting. Besides Mom at the piano, Uncle Charlie and Odia Driskoll played a banjo. Those were the days of prohibition and dad made home brew for the adults and root beer for the kids. He made the beer in large crocks in the basement and siphoned it into bottles. He had some sort of contraption to put caps on the bottles. Lawrence and Clara Roeder lived on Finley and they made wine. I remember hearing them talk about dandelion wine.

Mom also used those large crocks, she did a lot of cold packing. She canned many vegetables, meats and fruits, and also made jelly and preserves. Margaret remembers Mom taking us to Bakemeyer St. to Ott and Hanna Dietz's house. They had cherry trees and let us pick them at no charge. Mom showed us how to use bobby pins and remove the pits.

There wasn't much money spent on clothes because Mom was a very good seamstress and she made a lot of our clothes. Margaret remembers a dress with a very full skirt that Mom made for her. She said her friends asked if Mom would make one for them. So she did a good job and her work was appreciated. Mom had a portable Singer sewing machine in a case. She removed the lid, set the machine on the table and was ready to do her sewing.

Rosemary remembers one Christmas when Kenneth got a black metal doll. It was attached to some kind of base, and you could wind it up and it danced a jig. At Christmas we usually got toys and candy. One time we girls got a toy stove.

The house on Finley was small and had 2 bedrooms. The back bedroom had a full bed and a daybed which opened at night. Rosemary, Kenneth, Margaret and I slept there. Wilma slept in the front bedroom with Mom and Dad.

Oct. 31, 1931 our dad died. He was operated on for cancer of the bladder, but died from a blood clot that struck his heart after surgery. Rosemary and I were walking home from school when Mrs. Coombs, a friend of Mom's, stopped to pick us up. She told us about dad. In those days many people didn't use a Funeral Home. The wake was held at our house.

After dad died, we stayed on Finley for a while. We think Mom lived up the equity in the house and then we went to live on Bakemeyer in grandma's double. Mom had a hard time trying to support all of us. She cleaned houses, did laundry, whatever was available. She did a great job ironing men's shirts so did a lot of that work. Shirts then were starched heavily on the collar, cuffs and down the front. They were cotton and very hard to iron. We had no wash and wear in those days. Things were not pleasant when we lived at Grandma's. She offered no help to Mom which was hard to understand since Mom was always available to help when Grandpa was sick. One time Rosemary had pains in her stomach and Grandma put a hot water bottle on her. That caused her appendix to burst and she wound up in the Hospital with tubes in her. We had no antibiotics back then and many people died from appendicitis.

In 1929 the Stock Market crashed and things went from bad to worse. In the early 30's, we had the great "Depression." Many lost their jobs, their homes and money in the bank which wasn't insured back then. There was no welfare available but people managed to survive. Mom worked hard all her life and we should all be grateful that she worked to keep us together.

Sometime after dad died, Aunt Betty and Uncle Dick West took me to their house and dad's brother Kenneth and wife Euna took Kenneth. No doubt they were trying to help Mom.

Aunt Betty and Uncle Dick lived south on old Madison Ave. There was an Interurban running down Shelby St., south on Madison and farther south in the State. The train track was much lower than the road which could prove to be dangerous. When dad took us there to visit, he was careful backing out of the driveway. He feared backing too far and going down that steep incline where the tracks were. Aunt Betty and Uncle Dick both worked, so during school time, they dropped me at Uncle Joe Teipen's house each morning and I walked to St. Roch school with my Teipen cousins.

Uncle Kenneth and Aunt Euna lived on the northeast side of town, on Buckingham Drive. It was near Broad Ripple Park. At one time Uncle Kenneth was assistant Fire Chief. Aunt Euna was a lifeguard at Rhodius Park on the west side of town. She gave us swimming lessons.

In 1933 I came back to Mom's and started 7th grade at Beech Grove school. We don't remember when Kenneth came back. Uncle Kenneth wanted to adopt him, but mom would have no part of that.

Mom moved to 4401 Bethel Ave. in 1932. Later she married Clarence Schaekel who had 3 children of his own. Life with him was no bed of roses. He was so lazy, and lost his job at Langsenkamps. Later he got a job with the WPA (Works Progress Administration) which started in 1933. It was to help supply work for those needing a job. There was also a CCC (Civilian Conservation Corps) to help young men to work as foresters. These were started during Franklin Roosevelt's administration.

The house at 4401 had a big porch across the front and a side drive. We had a living room clear across the front of the house. There were two bedrooms and another small room which held a daybed. There was a small kitchen and large dining room, but Rosemary said we ate in the basement. We had nice neighbors, the Harveys, Havilands, Odens and Grays. They all had children we could spend time with. Mr. Oden raised guinea pigs for Lilly to use for research. Mrs. Haviland made doll clothes for Margaret and Wilma. We raised pigs and butchered them. There was a real "Indian" who came through the neighborhood looking for work. He brought his horse and hand plow, and plowed our gardens.

Later we moved to a house at 4203 Bethel. This house had 3 bedrooms and another small room which was used for sleeping purposes. We had an outside toilet, but this small room was supposed to be a bathroom at some point in time.

We had a pump outside and one of Kenneth and Margaret's jobs was to pump water for Mom to do laundry. They pumped into a trough that went down to the basement. Mom had a stove down there to heat the water. She also had a "boiler". Back in those days, clothes that were very soiled were boiled for some time, to help get them clean. Mom made soap out of lye, lard, etc. She also used the boiler to cold pack vegetables, fruit and meat. One neighbor nearby let her have pears to can.

Kenneth found a snake in the basement one time. He went next door to get Mrs. Haviland and she brought a hoe and chopped off the snake's head. One day Kenneth was climbing a tree in a neighbors yard, he fell and broke his ribs. He was always where the action was.

We had two cows called Rosie and Lena. So we had plenty of milk to drink and we churned butter. The outside toilet was on one side of the garage and a chicken coop on the other side. In the back of the lot on the west, was a small barn for the cows. The calves were sold and one was a blue roan, a color you didn't see very often.

Mom got a job at Reserve Loan Life Insurance Co. at Michigan and Pennsylvania Sts. She worked until 9 pm, cleaning the offices there. She walked Wilma down 13th Street and met Rosemary coming from school. That worked out well for Mom, she walked on to Main Street to get a ride to work and Rosemary brought Wilma back home. We had to eat supper and get ready for bed because it was late when Mom got home. I think Clarence drove to get her at 9 pm.

During those times, we had some good and some bad times. Life around Clarence was no fun. He spent most of his time rocking in a rocking chair. Wilma remembers him knocking mom backwards off the back porch. Luckily she landed on her feet. Rosemary hit him in the head one time because he hit mom.

In 1934 Margaret was put in the Hospital for malnutrition and anemia. Before she left the Hospital, they also removed her appendix.

We never lacked for something to do, and never had time to be bored. Mom kept us busy. Even though we didn't have much, everything had to be scrubbed and kept clean. No doubt this comes from our German heritage. If we complained or said we were tired, Mom would say "get busy and you'll forget you're tired." Margaret remembers one of her jobs was to cut pages from the Sears catalogue for use in the outside toilet.

School was quite a distance from our house, but there were no school busses to ride. You walked, rain or shine. Sometimes if there was a basketball game, or skating in the Gym, Rosemary and I would go back to school in the evening. It wasn't bad going, but coming home in the dark was a scary thing. There were no street lights, and very few homes along the route we walked. I remember being in G.A.A., the Girl's Athletic Association, and playing basketball. I really enjoyed that. Rosemary said she didn't belong to G.A.A.

In 1936 Mom had to have surgery. Rosemary lied about her age in order to give 1½ pints of blood. In order to keep her job, the school Principal allowed me to leave school early, and get to town to do Mom's cleaning job. As I recall, Clarence did come after me at 9 pm.

Rosemary graduated Beech Grove High School in 1937 and took a job with a Lawyer, Henry Coombs. She worked in a building on So. Pennsylvania St. I graduated in 1938 and got a job across the street from where Rosemary worked. We both gave some of our small wages to mom.

Life with Clarence never improved, so one night Mom moved us out and didn't tell him. We went to a rented house at 1419 Churchman Ave. It was cold weather, sometime before Christmas in 1938. Henry Coombs got a divorce for Mom and didn't charge her. We don't remember the marriage or divorce date for Mom and Clarence.

While working at the Insurance Co., Mom met the Building Superintendent, Harry J. McCullough. He was quite a few years older than Mom, but very nice to all of us. They married, but we don't remember the date. In mid 1939, we moved to 350 No. State St. We lived close to Tech High School, but Mr. McCullough paid tuition for Kennet to attend Howe High School on East Washington St. Wilma and Margaret went to Tech. Kenneth didn't graduate from Howe, he quit to join the Marine Corps.

Dec. 7, 1941, the Japanese bombed Pearl Harbor and we went to war.

Kenneth and a school buddy, John Jackson, joined the Marines. They had gone to school together and played on the basketball team. Kenneth also played some CYO (Catholic Youth Organization) basketball with Ray Butsch, and got into trouble. It was written up in the newspaper about a "Sunday school boy makes Howe forfeit their basketball games." Obviously neither Kenneth or Ray were aware of it being a problem for Kenneth to be involved with a CYO team.

In February of 1944, Ray enlisted in the Marines. We were living at 151 Bakemeyer St. at the time, and Mauna was 2 years old. With him going into service, I needed to get a job to provide for me and Mauna. Mom agreed to watch her while I worked, so I moved back home with her and Mr. McCullough.

Kenneth was at the Marine Corps base in Quantico, Virginia. He met Pauline from Alexandria, Virginia and they were married. This same year Mom and Mrs. Coombs, took Margaret to New York where she married Warren Smock. He was in the service, and stationed on Staten Island.

In 1945 Rosemary and Carl bought the house on Finley that mom lost when dad died. That made Mom very happy. Mr. McCullough had a car and let Carl use it to go down and work on the house. In the fall of that year, Mom and Mr. McCullough divorced. He had lost his job, so had no income. He went to live with his sister. Once again Mom got a divorce at no charge because Rosemary was working for another Lawyer, George Burkhart. Rosemary said she remembers that year very well because she was pregnant.

During the war Rosemary and I worked at Allisons where they made airplane engines. We worked 12 hours a day, 6 days a week and went to work in the dark and came home in the dark. Kenneth and Ray were both in the South Pacific area with the Marines.

After a time, I took a test and got a Government job as Secretary to the Captain in charge of the Chemical Warfare Depot on Northwestern Ave. We had prisoners of war there and it was an interesting job. Throughout the war, Mom sent "Care" packages to relatives in Germany.

When Ray came home, we continued to live on State Street and Mom took a job at the Bertha Ballard Home at 411 No. Delaware St. In 1950 Mom moved back with us and took a job at the Western Electric Plant on Shadeland Ave. She worked for Szabo Food Service and specialized in making salads. Szabo had their services in many local plants as well as plants throughout the country. One time mom was sent to the large Boeing Airplane Plant in Seattle, Washington, to open Szabo services there. This same year, Rosemary and Carl sold the house on Finley to Warren and Margaret, and once again, Mom was happy to have the house back in the family.

In 1967 Mom bought the house on Finley and sold it in 1974. She was not in the best of health and rotated her time between the homes of Rosemary, Margaret and me. In 1977 she went into a Nursing Home in Beech Grove and died there Nov. 3, 1979.

These are some things Rosemary, Margaret, Wilma and I remember!!

THERE ARE SEVERAL ADDRESSES ON BAKEMEYER STREET FOR THE TEIPEN FAMILY FROM CITY DIRECTORIES by Deloris Burns Butsch

201 and 210 are first listed. I think the numbers were transposed and all should be 201

201 is where Frances Shaw lives, a beauty operator known well by Rosemary & Deloris. Frances owns this house and was told a story about it from Lena Baer Watson. Rosemary & Deloris know Lena, she was a friend of their mother Rose. Lena said she saw the house at 201 being moved there from Morris and West St. She was about 7 years old at the time. She said the house had 2 rooms up and 2 rooms down when it was moved. An old barn up on Gimber (1st street south of Bakemeyer) was torn down and the big sills and timbers were used to add another room up and down on the house, in the front. She thinks the Teipens lived here and built the house at 151 where the grocery store was. In the city directories it shows Anthony Teipen family lived at 1111 So. West Street. Morris Street is 1200 I think and I remember Mom Rose showing us where she lived as a child and it was just a bit north of Morris on West St. City directories show Anthony Teipen lived 1111 So. West St. until 1906 when he is shown living at 210 Bakemeyer. Evidentally Anthony moved a house to Bakemeyer and moved his family there. May 18, 1905 Warranty Deed to Anton Teipen. The East 1/2 of lot 20 in Bakemeyer's sub-division of lots 2, 3, 4, 5 and 6 in Bakemeyer's South Addition to the City of Indianapolis, as recorded in Plat Book 12 at page 64 in the Recorders office of Marion County, In. Anton and Henrietta Teipen had a mortgage May 22, 1912 on this property of $1,000 at 6 1/2% interest, due on or before 10 years after the date, not less than $10 per month. On October 23, 1918 Anton and Henrietta deeded to Chester E. and Blanche E. Stephenson. On October 13, 1920 Stephensons sold to Oscar Hutton. This information given Deloris Butsch in April 1985.

151 was the house Anthony and his sons built and it was a large 2 story home. They had a grocery store in the lower part and Joseph Teipen and William Burns worked in it. Joseph is the oldest son of Anthony and William Burns was the husband of Mary Teipen Burns, the oldest daughter of Anthony and Henrietta. It was later made into a double. Ray and Deloris Butsch lived in this double in the early 1940's. It was 151 and 153 at that time.

157 is where my good friend Grace Kraft and husband Harry lived. I got information from her in 1985, she let me read from their abstract. Warranty deed Feb. 27, 1909, recorded Feb. 25, 1910 from Henry C. Bakemeyer and Sophia Bakemeyer his wife, to Henry Anthony Teipen and Henrietta Teipen, husband and wife. Lots 1, 2 and 3 in the corrected Plat of Bakemeyer's South Meridian Street Addition, as per plot of said addition recorded in the Recorders Office of Marion County, Indiana, in Plat Book 13, page 107. Mortgage Record 675, p. 530 Dec. 31,1915 Mortgage recorded Jan. 4, 1916. Lot 2, in the corrected plot of Bakemeyer's South Meridian Street Addition to the City of Indianapolis. To secure a note of $600 payable on or before 10 years after date with interest at 6 1/2%, at not less than $6 per month as dues on 6 shares of stock. This mortgage satisfied Oct. 29, 1918. Warranty deed recorded Oct. 25, 1918, Henry Anthony Teipen and Henrietta (her X mark) Teipen, husband and wife (Witness her signature by mark, (Rose Burns) to Chester E. Stephenson and Blanch E. Stephenson, husband and wife. This was a house made of cement block and at ones time Charles Richard West (Dick) and Elizabeth Teipen West lived there. Elizabeth was a daughter of Anthony and Henrietta.

145 probably one of the homes the Teipens built and some of the family lived there during the years. Henry Teipen had lived there, he was a son of Anthony and Henrietta. William and Mary Burns lived there, she was a daughter of Anthony and Henrietta. 131 and 133 Bakemeyer was a double where many of the family lived at one time or another. Mainly it was the home of Anthony and Henrietta but others of the family who lived there at one time or another were: Daughter Helena and husband Harry Martlage, daughter Marguerite-and husband Norris Cunningham, son Anthony (Tony) and wife Polly, daughter Elizabeth and husband Richard West (Dick) and daughter Rose Burns and her children after Rose's husband died in 1931. Dick West and wife Elizabeth (Betty) bought this house from Henrietta and made it into a single home. Henrietta lived there with them until she died in 1939. In 1955, Ray and Deloris Butsch bought this house.

make an effort to have a new internment as close to the other as possible. There is a STRONG possibility that they may be buried very close to one another. The Cemetery was supposed to keep a record as to these burials. We didn't start keeping grave locations in our records until my Father took over the books in the late 40's and early 50's. Great Grandpa Lauck and Grandpa Lauck were not much on record keeping. In those days, the Cemetery many times allowed infants to be buried at the foot of an adult grave of a Family member. If the parents had grave space, the infants might be buried on that lot. I am sorry I could not be a better help in this matter, but this is all our records show. If you should have a question with this response, or if I can be of any other assistance, let me know.!" Signed Leo Lauck.

Dear Mrs. Butsch,

I have checked the baptismal records for Kenneth Harry, Margaret Mary and Wilma Elizabeth. I could only find Wilma's. She was baptized on October 21, 1928.

The following are First Communion records I was able to find:

Rosemary - 5/29/27 Deloris -- 5/29/27

Kenneth -- 5/25/30 Margaret -- 5/15/32

I hope this has helped. Please feel free to call again if you need anything else.

Dear Ms. Aton,

I very much appreciate you helping me to find records on my family, and being so prompt.

Since you didn't find my brother and one sister's baptismal records, I have again contacted Sacred Heart to see if they have them.

If it isn't too much trouble, I would like to know who the sponsors were for the baptism of my sister Wilma Elizabeth Burne. She was baptized October 21, 1928. I should have thought to request this information in my original letter, sorry about that.

Sincerely,

Dear Mrs. Butsch:

Enclosed is your birth certificate as you requested.

The name Gulichmus does translate to William.

I have gone through the record books for the whole years of 1923 and 1925 and cannot find records on Kenneth or Margaret Mary. Have you tried St. John's downtown yet?

If there is anything else I can do to help, please contact me. As you know, I do eventually get the job done. Thank you for your patience.

Dear Mrs. Butsch:

I'm sorry it's taken so long to respond to your letter requesting family information. I have a new computer and now it takes me a lot longer to do everything!

I have enclosed copies from our books on the records that I found.

For your daughter, Mauna Rae, the records show she was born in 1942. The date of baptism was February 22, 1942. Sponsors were Paul Butsch and Rosemary Burns. If our record is wrong, will you please let me know!

There is nothing on Mary Burns born in 1917. I did not find anything on Kenneth, Margaret or Wilma. My only suggestion would be to check with St. John' downtown.

On marriage records, we do not record birth dates. I did find 6 of the marriages. Some of them are in German. I went ahead and mailed all this in case you could figure it out. If not, Fr. Elias will be in next week and can translate them for you.

I hope this helps.

Sincerely,

A statue of St. Joseph has guarded those in perpetual rest since the cemetery's chapel was constructed 124 years ago.

The German inscription below the statue reads; "God's cemetery under the protection of St. Joseph." (Spotlight photo by J. Cosby)

A historic chapel

To the Editor:

The article in the April 16 issues of The Indianapolis Star and News, written by Judith Cebula, regarding St. Joseph Chapel in Indianapolis was read with dismay and disgust.

The article was incomplete for it did not include some important facts concerning the historic chapel.

The beautiful little chapel held its last Mass in 1925, and since has been used for nothing but a storage shed except for a short time in the early 1970s.

All through the years from the time of my childhood, while accompanying my mother in visiting our loved ones at the cemetery, we were always disappointed at not being able to visit the chapel for it was always locked.

It wasn't until 1971, when the chapel blossomed again, with thanks to Sister Philonilla M. Weintraut, O.S.F.

On All Souls Day in 1971, Sister Philonilla was attending burial services during a rainstorm. One of the cemetery workers opened the chapel doors for people to get out of the rain.

Sister Philonilla could not believe what she saw. The pews were overturned, a musty tarpaulin was flung across the steps of the sanctuary — testimonials to the lack of concern.

With the promise of help headed by a 13-year-old teenager, also in attendance at the services, Sister Philonilla began the restoration of the chapel.

More than $15,000 worth of labor and materials went into refurbishing the chapel and landscape of the grounds.

Many volunteers from all religious denominations worked side by side with Sister Philonilla to restore the chapel that for years was abandoned by the Cemetery Association.

Sister Philonilla even enlisted the aid of the fire department in restoring the beautiful bells in the tower which rang thereafter at internments.

On All Souls Day in 1972, the first anniversary of Sister Philonilla and her many volunteers' untiring work, hourly Masses were held from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m.

More than 1,000 people attended the services, with more than 500 receiving Holy Communion.

Each year thereafter Masses were held on All Souls Day.

When Sister Philonilla was retired to the Mother House in 1977 in Mishawaka, Ind., the chapel was again slowly reduced to a state of disrepair and neglect.

St. Joseph Chapel is one of a long list of churches and schools which, with the stroke of a finger, are reduced to rubble without the input of parishioners who have the right to express their opinion and decision,

After all, parishioners should be able to voice an opinion regarding their churches and schools for it is their blood, sweat and elbow grease plus money that built their places of worship.

On visiting St. Joseph and Holy Cross Cemeteries — which this writer does on a weekly basis — people have been seen walking up the steps to the chapel only to turn around very disappointed at not being able to visit the little chapel.

Many times, during holidays, people from out of town will stop and chat and ask if the little chapel is open.

Never accessible to those wanting to visit the chapel, this beautiful gem always seemed to be abandoned by the Cemetery Association.

During my lifetime, the only time the little chapel came to life was when Sister Philonilla and her many volunteers restored and used it for what it was intended — visitation, prayer and Masses.
